

nant survived the attack, as did the Inner Earth territories, but following this brief onslaught of 10,500 BC, the pyramids, Sphinx and other Egyptian structures had to be rebuilt. The Atlantean Islands were not directly involved in these attacks, though Resistance-Loyal Templar-Annu created minor uprisings against their Sirian Council Loyalist relatives, until word of the Resistance defeat drove them into temporary underground seclusion. The Atlantean Islands continued on with mounting tensions between the two groups, and by 9,500 BC the Resistance-Loyal Templar-Annu had once again regained their stronghold in Atlantis.

In Egypt, following the Resistance attack, the Sirian Council Anunnaki, Annu-Melchizedeks, Cloister Melchizedeks and Serres-Egyptians rebuilt the primary structures of their civilization. The ankhs, which had been hidden in the Inner Earth during the raid, were again brought to the surface, and the Great Pyramid of Giza, the Sphinx, and several new structures were rebuilt. The Sphinx and Great Pyramid were placed in their previous locations marking the fortification of the Arc of the Covenant and Inner Earth portals. The Great Pyramid was slightly realigned in order to create a Harmonic Resonance link with the Pleiadian star system through the planet Alcyone, which would allow the structure to be used once again as an interstellar teleport station. Because of the disturbances of the Earth grid that occurred during the Atlantean explosions 30,000 years ago (28,000 BC) the original alignment with the Sirius B system could not be reestablished. The Third Eye of Horus portal bridge to Sirius B did remain operational for smaller-scale visitations. The Earth was now more closely in alignment with the interstellar energy spirals that ran through the Pleiadian system, and so the new pyramid was oriented to an energetic alignment with Alcyone.

2017 AD APPOINTMENT

Earth enters a new 26,556-Year Time Cycle, Ascension Cycles

and the 2017 AD Appointment

22,326 BC - 2017 AD - 4230 AD

The civilizations of Earth continued to prosper and once again enjoyed interstellar visitation from their Sirian and Pleiadian allies. Atlantis continued to digress under the influence of a resurgence of the Templar-Annu. The crystal generators were adapted into devices of torture for those not in compliance with the Templars, and a period of genetic experimentation and rampant power abuses ensued within Atlantean culture. The Arc of the Covenant and the Inner Earth remained safe under the protection of the Sirian Council as Earth began her next natural 26,556-year cycle of evolution through the interdimensional time spirals. Earth entered her new 26,556-year cycle 24,324 years ago in 22,326 BC, with the challenge of rebalancing her energetic grid following the Atlantean explosions of 28,000 BC. With the close of the old cycle came a natural period of dimensional blending through which the Sphere of Amenti could have been reentered into the Earth core, but due to the continuing setbacks and necessity for planetary rebalancing, the Earth grid did not vibrate high enough for the Sphere of Amenti to be returned. At the onset of the new cycle in 22,326 BC, the Halls of Amenti would have to remain closed to the masses, as human evolution continued slowly along its course.

The first 4,426 years within the new cycle represented a time of great promise, for this cycle period constituted the natural point at which Earth would release two morphogenetic waves, through which masses of people could ascend to Tara if the Halls of Amenti were opened. The first morphogenetic wave was released from Earth in 20,113 BC, the second wave in 17,900 BC, but the populations were unable to ascend as the Halls of Amenti were not yet opened. Within the 26,556-year natural time cycle of Earth, morphogenetic waves are released only during four periods, the first two waves within the first 4,426 years of the cycle, and the last two waves during the final 4,426 years of the cycle. These two 4,426-year periods, which occur at the opening and closing of a 26,566 year cycle, are referred to as Ascension Cycles. Since the Halls of Amenti were not opened during the first Ascension Cycle of the new time cycle, the souls trapped in the D-2 elemental and D-4 astral kingdoms, as well as the humans on Earth, would have to wait until the final Ascension Cycle of their 26,556-year time cycle, in order to ascend.

From 22,326 BC forward the Guardian races of HU-2, the Ra Confederacy and the earthly guardians of the Arc of the Covenant planned, prepared and waited for the next Ascension Cycle. This time the Halls of Amenti must be opened—this time the Earth grid must be able to hold the Sphere of Amenti—this time the many souls trapped within HU-1 must be allowed to ascend. The final Ascension Cycle within this 26,556-year time cycle would begin in the year 196 BC. The first morphogenetic wave of this Ascension Cycle was due to be released in the year 2017 AD. The last morphogenetic wave of this Ascension Cycle would take place in 4230 AD. If the Halls of Amenti were not opened during this final Ascension cycle, the souls of the masses would be unable to ascend to Tara for another 26,556 years. If the Halls of Amenti could be opened by 2012 AD, or by 4230 AD at the latest, the races of Earth could finally reclaim the divinity and dignity of their heritage and return to HU-2, to the reality of the Immortal body and the original 12-strand DNA construction. Their consciousness would no longer be trapped within HU-1 or in the D-4 astral planes. The living and the dead (those souls trapped in the astral planes) would rise up and ascend out of their earthly prisons and into the “heavenly” lands of Tara in HU-2. These stories of ascension, which appeared within your traditional religious texts were originally given to you by the Elohim and others, in order to explain the highly scientific process of dimensional ascension that your races would be faced with when the Halls of Amenti were opened.

The Teachings of the Divine Science, the Original Templar, Anunnaki Resistance and Templar-Annu Distortions of the Templar Teachings and the Guardians' Awakening Agenda

28,000 BC–present

Originally the teachings of ascension were quite scientific in nature, dealing with the reality of multidimensional physics. The original information brought to the races of the Third Seeding represented the teachings of the Science of Keylonta, the underlying energetic mechanisms through which reality is created and the processes through which consciousness evolves. The early Atlantean cultures had full access to this information, and until the Templar-Annu distorted the teachings in order to control the populations, the science of ascension and multidimensional mechanics was publicly taught as a primary belief model around which societies were structured. The teachings were given to all of the races throughout the globe, not just those of Egypt and Atlantis. Over time, and through the oppression of the Templar-Annu and later control-oriented political groups, the true teachings were distorted or destroyed as they gave the common person power over their personal destiny. People who are empowered cannot be controlled or manipulated by outside authorities, and so the tool of empowerment, knowledge, was taken away from the masses so the few elite could hold them under their power.

What remains today of the ascension teachings is hardly an introduction to the true science as it was once applied on Earth. Portions of the teachings survived through the mystical schools of the ages, kept under strict secrecy, as the politically controlling factions of various time periods persecuted those who attempted to bring the truth to the populations. Even today this persecution exists (though usually in more covert form), much of it within the traditional religious organizations whose teachings have been highly distorted in order to keep people powerless and subservient to religious authority figures. The science of ascension was withheld from the masses, but the promise of ascension was used to manipulate people into supporting and obeying the authorities who claimed that ascension could be accomplished only through blind belief and adherence to their politically motivated creeds. The original teachings were intended for everyone, not just to serve the objectives of a power elite. Though certain groups were appointed with guardianship of the Sphere of Amenti and the Arc of the Covenant, they were not intended to hoard this power and knowledge for themselves, but this is precisely what occurred throughout various periods of Earth's history. The guardian races of 22,326 BC knew it would be a challenge to prepare the masses for the Ascension Cycle of 196 BC–4230 AD, but they had not originally planned for the disruptions caused by the Templar-Annu and their Anunnaki Resistance allies.

Through the manipulation of the Anunnaki Resistance and the Templar-Annu, following the Atlantean explosions of 28,000 BC, preparing the races for the morphogenetic wave of 2017 AD became a very difficult task, as the teachings that would allow this preparation to go smoothly were lost, manipulated,
